HAWAIIAN POKE FINALLY DEBUTING IN CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, OHIO, January 29th, 2018 -- A new cuisine is hitting Cleveland's ever-growing food scene on February 10th. After being open for nearly a year, 2nd And High will celebrate its one-year anniversary by debuting Cleveland's first full Hawaiian Poke menu. Previously under the moniker "2nd and High Social House," the restaurant will be changed to "2nd and High Poke House + Bar." Cleveland will now be able to pair the restaurant's hand-crafted cocktails with high-protein, health-focused meals.

Recognizing the trend of healthy, quick-service eateries, 2nd and High has added a quick service counter where patrons can pick from a menu of house favorites or build-your-own Poke bowl options. Diners also have the option to have table service with a checklist-style menu. The entire menu is dairy and gluten-free with a substantial amount of Paleo and Vegan/Vegetarian options. House favorites include the "Polka Poke" - a poke bowl with sushi-grade Ahi Tuna, Salmon, Avocado, Cucumber, Seaweed, Ginger, Tobiko & a house Miso Aioli on your choice of white or brown rice, nachos, or spring greens. Steamed buns with various fillings such as BBQ pork, pork belly, hoisin-glazed mushrooms will be served as appetizers. On the beverage side, the restaurant has expanded their cocktail offering and added healthy non-alcoholic drinks such as coconut water slushies and pressed juices. 2nd and High will also offer full delivery and catering through their website, phone, and various delivery platforms.

Along with changing the menu, 2nd and High is seeking to run a fully eco-friendly operation. "While this may seem as simple as a menu release, it's essentially an upgraded branding solution." Explains bar director Alexandra Maryanovsky. "Over the course of the past year we have evolved how we operate towards being as sustainable as possible. This includes our entire space being outfitted with LED lighting, recycled, re-purposed and upcycled materials, separating and recycling all our waste, and using conservation wherever possible. We have fully embraced our changes as a lifestyle here at 2nd & High. We are proud to feature a restaurant and cocktail bar that bring back the foundation of being a local and family-owned small business in the heart of downtown Cleveland."

2nd and High Poke House + Bar is located at 2123 East 2nd Street in Cleveland. Food and drinks are served from 11 am until 2 am daily with the menu debuting to the public February 10th.
